

Effective online courses to achieve real results

Plato Courseware is built on standards-based online curriculum grounded in a tradition of solid research, sound pedagogy, and applied innovation. We have developed rigorous, relevant curriculum that will challenge your students with a 21st century approach and engage them with interactive, media-rich content.

Whether your students are falling behind, at grade level, or advanced, you can accommodate their unique needs in an environment in which they will thrive. Plato Courseware can be used in a lab setting, as a blended model where online courses supplement the traditional classroom, or with a completely virtual experience.

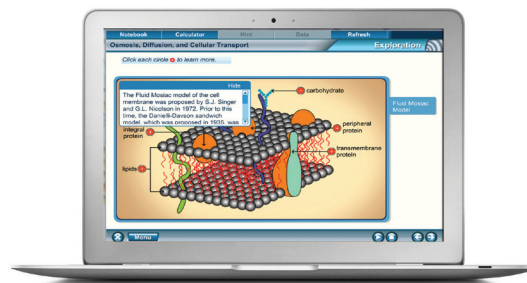

- Interactive, media-rich content actively engages students
- Robust flexibility allows you to customize courseware to meet your unique needs
- Aligned to Common Core and state standards
- Award-winning courseware proven by third-party research and studies
- Broad range of core subjects, electives, global languages, and Advanced Placement®* courses
- High-quality content for original credit, supplemental learning, credit recovery, unit recovery, and extended learning
